BEN'S NE

BEN AFFLECK is getting busy with his new "Jennifer Garner look-alike" girlfriend — and only The National ENQUIRER has the first photos of the couple's Independence Day weekend London lovefest!

Captured in world exclusive photos shown here is Emmy-winning blond knockout Lindsay Shookus, who sources told The ENQUIRER has long worked as a big-shot producer at NBC's "Saturday Night Live."

Our spies told The ENQUIRER: "The couple looked happy and thrilled. They spent most of the weekend together before Ben jetted back to L.A. to be with Jen and his kids. The ironic thing is she looks just like Jen — only blond!

"Lindsay flew in from Los Angeles and spent four nights in London at the same luxury hotel as Ben!" a source said, adding that on June 29, the new couple enjoyed a decadent seven-course meal at the swanky Gymkhana Indian restaurant in Mayfair.

"The very next day, they were together on the set of 'Justice League' in Leavesden Studios where Ben was filming re-shoots," dished the source.

On Saturday night, July 1, Ben, 44, treated Lindsay, 37, to a play on London's West End.

"They went to see 'The Ferryman' at the Gielgud Theatre," squealed our source.

"They left together and went straight back to their hotel!

"They drove into the underground parking garage to avoid being observed."

On Sunday, July 2, the couple flew back to Los Angeles together from London's Heathrow Airport.

Two days later, on July 4, Ben was playing "happy family" with Jen and their three children at an Independence Day parade in their hometown of Pacific Palisades, Calif.

Ben's new squeeze was married in 2010 to Kevin Miller, who also worked for "SNL" and is now supervising producer for "Late Night with Seth Meyers." They have a young daughter and apparently live on separate floors of the same New York apartment building.

"Ben still cares for Jen and the kids, but his heart belongs to Lindsay right now," tattled our source.

"They met some time ago when Ben was hosting 'SNL,' and there was an immediate spark. Ben and Lindsay flirted and stayed in touch through Ben's appearances on 'SNL.'"

After Ben and Jen separated, the actor reached out to Lindsay and passion flared, blabbed the source.

"They had secret meetings at hotels in New York and Canada, but never went out for fear of being photographed together," spilled the source.

"Whenever they met, Lindsay always went in one way and Ben went in another."

Although Ben's reps denied their hookups, the source said the clandestine couple even communicated through a secret email account!

"At some point, Ben even bought Lindsay a ring from Harry Winston, the jewelers. Jen found out when the store called Ben's house," said the source.

"Jen met face-to-face with Lindsay and demanded she return the jewelry. Lindsay says she'd return it, but only if Ben asked for it back."

The actor's reps denied that, but "Ben and Lindsay had a few rendezvous while he filmed 'The Batman' movie," noted the source.

"Ben pledged to work on his marriage and tension subsided, but he continued to see Lindsay in secret. She was the woman who ultimately ended any hope of reconciliation between Ben and Jen."

As THE ENQUIRER was first to report, Ben abandoned his family in April 2015, and sought "self-discovery" at a Buddhist monastery outside a tiny town of 650 residents in Nova Scotia, Canada.

The ENQUIRER exclusively caught the Oscar-winning bad boy ON VIDEO parading around town without his wedding ring!

After a decade of marriage, the power couple announced plans to divorce on June 30, 2015, amid reports of Ben's out-of-control gambling, boozing — and alleged cheating with the family's nanny, Christine Ouzounian!

Although the A-list pair seemed close to mending their marriage recently, they "amicably" filed for divorce on April 13.

Former "Alias" star Jen filed divorce documents in Los Angeles Superior Court, citing irreconcilable differences, and Ben filed an identical response.

The pair did not use a lawyer and are asking for joint legal and physical custody of their children.

They recently enjoyed a five-day getaway at the luxury Atlantis resort on Paradise Island in the Bahamas, where they were spotted with their kids — Violet, 11, Seraphina, 8, and Samuel, 5.

The 6-foot-4 hunk, who completed a rehab stint on March 14, had ballooned from 208 pounds to a chunky 256, and friends feared Ben was eating himself to death.

But now the fat's in the fire, as THE ENQUIRER has exposed Ben's secret new girlfriend!

"Jen is fit to be tied," said the source. "She's really going to make Ben pay now!" NE

MADONNA MELTS DOWN OVER TWO-TIMING BOY TOY!

Madge cries in bed after CATCHING 'MANNY' WITH DANCER!

OVER-THE-HILL pop tart Madonna flipped out after catching her live-in boy toy with another woman — in HER OWN bed! Now The National ENQUIRER has learned the Material Girl, 58, is crying a river since giving Aboubakar "Brooklin" Soumahoro, a 26-year-old model, the boot.

"Madonna threw Brooklin to the curb," an insider snitched to The ENQUIRER.

"And she burned half of the new wardrobe he'd bought with her money — and gave the rest to dancers in her group for spite!"

The "Like a Virgin" singer reportedly met Brooklin, who hails from Africa's Ivory Coast, in late 2015. At the time, he was working as a salesclerk at Harrod's department store in London.

But within months Brooklin quit his job, joined Madonna's Rebel Heart tour and moved into her home!

The "Vogue" singer treated Brooklin like part of the family, squealed the source, and he eventually "was moved up to the highest staff position, her 'manny'" for her younger children — 16-year-old Rocco, and David and Mercy, both 11.

"Brooklin was ... the only staffer who traveled with them everywhere they went," the source added.

The chiseled hunk even accompanied Madonna and her brood on a skiing vacation to Switzerland in January, but he soon got too big for his britches.

"Brooklin started treating other staffers like they worked for him," the source blabbed.

"He barked orders, and when he wasn't lying around he went out and bought bags full of high-end clothing."

Soon other staffers began to suspect Brooklin's relationship with the "Lucky Star" singer had turned passionate.

Their hunch was confirmed when Madonna — who's dated a string of younger hunks, including slugger Alex Rodriguez and ex-hubby Guy Ritchie, the "Sherlock Holmes" director — moved Brooklin into a bedroom that adjoined hers, insiders said.

To keep the fling secret, Brooklin began messing up his bed to make it look like he'd slept there, and not with Madonna, insiders revealed.

But "he started slipping up and left his room and bed untouched," squealed another source.

As for Madonna, sources said the May-December romance revved her

"She felt alive again. It was more about her youth, and the fact that it had passed," tattled the source.

But Madonna's love bubble burst when she came home unexpectedly — and found Brooklin steaming up the sheets with a "new gorgeous and young dancer," a source revealed.

"She was devastated," the source added. "She actually caught them in her own bed! She went berserk!" Enraged, Madonna threw Brooklin out — but not before warning him to keep quiet about their affair!

Since the humiliating betrayal, Madonna has holed up in bed, sources said.

"All she does is cry," leaked the snitch. "She's very, very heartbroken." NE

HYPOCRITE KIM'S ...

SQUEAKY-CLEAN CLAIMS ...

KIM GOES WILD SECRET SEX TAPE

KIM KARDASHIAN is nothing but a boob-baring, booty-shaking hypocrite — and her infamous sex tape proves it!

The reality TV glamour-puss presents herself as a hardworking mother of two who's never touched alcohol or drugs.

But The National ENQUIRER has uncovered a treasure trove of never before seen segments from the sleazy porn video "Kim Kardashian, Superstar," showing a scantily clad Kim downing shots, guzzling beer and smoking dope!

"Kim is a huge hypocrite! She's been bragging to friends and fans for years that she lives an ultra-clean lifestyle, but that's simply not true!" dished a Kardashian family insider.

"When she was younger, Kim was a nonstop partier and a well-known fixture on the club scene. She'd wake up at 1 p.m., and her head wouldn't hit the pillow again until the sun came up the next day."

Despite that, 36-year-old Kim has insisted that she's the one Kardashian who sticks to the straight and narrow.

"I've never gotten into drugs," she declared. "I've never been a drinker ... I can't stand the taste of alcohol ... I don't touch booze."

But explosive bonus footage from the sizzling sex tape proves she's lying through her teeth!

Filmed in late October 2003, never-before-seen clips from the video captured Kim's super-steamy 23rd birthday trip to Cabo San Lucas, Mexico, with then-boyfriend, 22-year-old singer/actor Ray J.

In one shocking scene, Kim didn't blink an eye when Ray J presented her with a marijuana pipe — in the shape of male genitalia!

"Nice pipe, huh?" Kim giggled as the camcorder rolled inside their hotel suite. "Can I smoke it now?"

Leaning down to put her lips around the pipe as Ray J held it at his crotch, the sassy sexpot giggled as he ordered her, "Smoke it."

The pipe was not filled or lit. But later, Kim didn't hesitate to inhale.

"Wanna hit this, Kimberly?" Ray J asked, holding out a lit, suspicious-looking cigarette to the future reality star.

"Actually, I do!" Kim squealed, leaning over to seductively suck a cloud of smoke out of his mouth.

"No more for you," Ray J warned after her puff. "You're gonna be trippin' now!"

Kim whined, "But I want one more!" Eventually, Ray J gave in.

doing things she said she'd never do!

Kim, now married to Kanye West, wants to rewrite her history

The unedited footage also revealed that Kim — who has always vehemently denied being involved in peddling the tape — seemed to know the video was intended for public consumption.

In one shot, she complained: "I don't like the angle I'm in!"

Then she laughed as Ray J announced: "I'm putting this on the DVD!"

Four years later, Vivid Entertainment released the sex tape, catapulting Kim and her "Keeping Up with the Kardashians" family to international superstardom and setting up their wide-ranging business empire.

Kim and her family have repeatedly maintained they weren't involved in the tape's release. Just weeks ago, momager Kris Jenner blasted the tape as "devastating" and "one of the most horrific things that we, as a family, went through."

But the family insider claimed that's hogwash!

"Kim still claims she was violated and had no hand in the release of the tape. But just like her lies about drinking and drugs, Kim isn't telling the full story," the source spilled.

"She took the money grab from the sex tape when she was trying to make a name for herself.

"Back then, Kim was the social-climbing party girl — always happy to do a shot or take a hit off a joint."

But once the family business took off, Kim shrewdly decided to clean up her image, tattled the insider.

"Kim knows that presenting

herself as a healthy straight arrow would be better for business, so she's been meticulously rewriting her history," the source dished.

"The 'new' Kim wants to be seen as refined and glamorous, so it's like she has selective amnesia when it comes to her past boozing and drugging.

"What it really highlights is that Kim is a huge fraud — and some of her fans will turn on her once they see proof that she's two-faced!"

In a bid to bury her past, Kim has worked overtime to cover up her bad-girl behavior, said the source.

"Kim has sworn her family to secrecy about her drinking and drug-taking. She's also quietly gone about getting friends to delete compromising pictures that would show her illicit activities," snitched the insider.

"But she lives in fear of being blackmailed or exposed. Kim would do just about anything to keep her sleazy past hidden."

Now that The ENQUIRER has exposed her extensive lies, Kim's multimillion-dollar fortune could be in jeopardy!

"A lot of brands pay her huge sums of money to post about them on social media, and they might be reluctant to be associated with a known druggie," said the source.

The rumored substance abuse of her husband, Kanye West, is another issue, said the source.

"The family cast Kanye's breakdown last year as 'exhaustion,' but he was never a stranger to pot and alcohol.

"A lot of people thought his outrageous behavior was fueled by his love of Hennessy," blabbed the insider.

"There have been whispers that Kanye's hospitalization was due to an overdose of some type.

"If Kim was so anti-illicit substances — as she likes to have everybody believe — how could she have tolerated Kanye's past overindulgences? She must have been enabling it.

"The bottom line is that Kim is full of it. She's crafted an image that makes her lots of money. It's a persona that Kim wishes she could be in real life, but she has too many dirty little secrets. It was only a matter of time that those secrets started trickling out."

Kris gets cozy with music man Foster!

Kardashian MOMAGER'S YOUNGER GUY Corey may be history!

COUGAR Kardashian matriarch Kris Jenner looks to have swapped longtime boytoy beau Corey Gamble for music maven David Foster!

On June 27, The National ENQUIRER caught Kris, 61, and David, 67, sharing a seemingly romantic dinner date at Hollywood hot spot Craig's — and spies said the pair looked pretty cozy together.

"Kris was being a total flirt," squealed a source, who added, "They were holding hands at the table."

The guiding force behind hits for Celine Dion and Rod Stewart, producer David is a ladies' man with four ex-wives under his belt. After this year's divorce from his most recent bride, Yolanda Hadid, he had a dalliance with Christie Brinkley.

Kris, meanwhile, has been with entertainment manager Corey since 2014 — but with him some 25 years her junior, it's often been speculated that their relationship is more business than true romance. The on-again/off-again pair were spotted together at her daughter Khloé's birthday bash just last month.

Insiders pointed out that if Kris and David were to date, it would be almost incestuous. David was once married to Linda Thompson, who was previously married to Kris' ex, Caitlyn Jenner — back when she was Olympian Bruce!

WILDLY jealous Kelly Ripa is livid ultra-ambitious Megyn Kelly used her "Live!" show to land an NBC News gig — and sources told The National ENQUIRER she's ready to sink her rival with a bombshell public reveal on her show!

"Kelly regrets the day she let Megyn be her guest co-host. She wishes she'd never let that woman use her as a stepping-stone on her own soundstage," a snitch spilled to The ENQUIRER. It was Kelly who invited Megyn to join ABC's "Live!" on Nov. 9 — the day after Donald Trump won the presidency.

"That show gave Megyn an audience massive enough to convince NBC that she was the right woman to lead their news crew," dished an industry source.

"Megyn was happy-pappy sitting next to Kelly, but then she turned around and used that segment and Kelly's ratings magic to seal the lucrative deal with NBC."

Kelly is even more incensed that she'll go head-to-head with Megyn when her new NBC show airs opposite "Live!" in the 9 a.m. time slot!

"Kelly's had more than her fill of betrayals," tattled a source close to the daytime diva.

"She feels like she's taken unnecessary shots from Regis Philbin, and that Michael Strahan left her high and dry without warning.

"Now she's being betrayed again by someone she considered a friend. This is the last time Kelly will let somebody step over her to promote their own career!"

An insider claimed: "Kelly's prepared to tell her audience that Megyn has resorted to plastic surgery, wigs and even SPANX to make herself look like something she's NOT for the camera!"

Kelly is not one to cross, according to insiders who said she's already soured on her new camera-hogging co-host, Ryan Seacrest, amid sagging ratings.

Ryan brazenly "talks over her" on the air and has snared a "producer title, thinking it's his ticket to taking over," blabbed an on-set snitch.

His scheming has triggered a bitter feud, and the co-hosts

Alex Jones failed to score Megyn a ratings win barely speak off-camera.

"They smile for the cameras, but during commercial breaks, Kelly's face turns to stone," said the snitch.

Meanwhile, Megyn isn't exactly living up to her $15 million-a-year paycheck at NBC. Her controversial Father's Day chat with radio host Alex Jones, who's branded the Sandy Hook school massacre a hoax, tanked in the ratings.

That show didn't even draw as many viewers as a "60 Minutes" RERUN!

Couple's YouTube 'PRANK' GOES FATALLY WRONG!

Perez and Pedro Ruiz III (right) sought internet fame

In a twisted effort to boost her online profile, a Minnesota teenager shot and killed her boyfriend — capturing the sickening stunt on camera!

Monalisa Perez, 19, and Pedro Ruiz III, 22, planned to post the video of the prank on YouTube and hoped it would go viral.

But thanks to their true stupidity, the gag went fatally wrong.

On June 26, Pedro held a 1.5-inch hardcover encyclopedia against his chest, while Monalisa stood about a foot away. Then she aimed a .50-caliber Desert Eagle handgun at his chest and pulled the trigger. The delusional duo believed the book would stop the bullet. It didn't.

"They loved each other. It was just a prank gone wrong," wept Pedro's aunt, Claudia Ruiz.

"It shouldn't have happened like this. It shouldn't have happened at ALL."

The fatally foolish twosome had posted other prank videos before. In one, Pedro tried to fool Monalisa by serving her a sandwich filled with hot peppers. In another, the couple detailed their stay in a haunted hotel.

After plotting ways to amp up their social media presence, the two cooked up the idea with the book and a gun and hyped it on Twitter.

"Me and Pedro are probably going to shoot one of the most dangerous videos ever," Monalisa posted to her Twitter account, adding, "HIS idea not MINE."

She told cops Pedro thought the stunt would work because he'd shot a different book, and the bullet didn't go through it.

As Pedro lay bleeding, Monalisa called 911, saying she'd accidentally shot her boyfriend. But the call came too late.

The violent video is being treated as evidence and has not been posted to YouTube, said authorities in Minnesota's Norman County.

Monalisa has been charged with second-degree manslaughter.

If convicted, she could serve 10 years in jail and face a fine of up to $20,000.

ANNA: BOOBS ON A STICK!

SPINDLY "Mom" star Anna Faris has shriveled to the size of a toothpick, sparking fears she's headed for a life-threatening battle with anorexia!

"Anna is frightfully insecure about her body, and takes dieting way too far," said a source close to the once-stunning actress. "A wardrobe person recently tried to put her in size ZERO pants — but they were too big!"

Even scarier are images showing the bikini-clad blonde's emaciated figure and protruding rib cage while filming a reboot of the 1987 comedy "Overboard."

"She has ZERO body fat," said diet and nutrition expert Alicia Hunter, who is also a celebrity weight-loss coach. The 40-year-old actress, who's 5-foot-4, looks to be no more than 102 pounds, according to Alicia. "She SHOULD weigh between 125 and 135 and this can lead to a myriad of issues, including exhaustion, loss of period, reproductive issues and heart problems."

The actress has been obsessed with dieting since giving birth to son Jack in 2012, insiders told The National ENQUIRER.

Now Anna's weight woes are so serious that her husband, "Jurassic World" hunk Chris Pratt, has urged her to gain some weight!

"But every time he brings it up, it causes a tremendous amount of friction between them," said the insider.

PERILOUSLY porky John Travolta has gotten so fat, friends, family and medical experts fear the "Saturday Night Fever" star has little hope of stayin' alive for much longer! What's more, the once-svelte star now finds himself in the danger zone for a host of diseases, including deadly cancers and a heart attack.

"It appears that he's packed on at least 50 pounds," said diet and nutrition expert Dr. Stuart Fischer, author of "The Park Avenue Diet."

"For someone who used to be a dancer, he now looks like he can't even walk up a flight of stairs."

Dr. Fischer, who estimates that 63-year-old John weighs a whopping 265 pounds, warned, "That weight is likely to be catastrophic for a guy his age."

What's more, John's weight may lead him to develop diabetes.

"That could lead to a fatal heart episode," Dr. Fischer cautioned.

"The visceral fat that the lower abdomen produces in obesity creates chemicals that promote several different types of cancer," he revealed. "Among them are prostate, lung and pancreatic cancers — any of which could leave him dead."

While it's hard to imagine a star of John's caliber coming to this, he's actually experienced weight swings before.

He first piled on major pounds after the tragic loss of his 16-year-old son, Jett, in 2009.

"The truth is, I didn't know if I was going to make it," the actor confessed. "Life was no longer interesting to me."

But John did bounce back, dumping some 30 pounds by 2013 and looking like the athletic leading man he used to be. His career even seemed to be on the upswing these last few years, although allegations of his participation in a string of sordid homosexual affairs — despite being married to actress Kelly Preston for 26 years — may have taken a toll, leading John to let himself go.

"John rarely hits the gym," squealed a source close to the star. "And he parties quite a bit whenever he's away from Kelly."

This summer, John hits screens in "The Life and Death of John Gotti,"

Travolta as Mafia thug John Gotti playing the title role of the infamous Mafioso. Unlike the gangster, who died in a Missouri prison after losing a lengthy battle to cancer, John could do himself in with his very own unhealthy habits.

"He's clearly paid little or no attention to taking care of himself with exercise or a sound diet," said Dr. Fischer.

"He's likely to pay a fatal price if he doesn't reverse course — fast!" NE

JUDGE JUDY A BOTOX REPEAT OFFENDER!

Frozen face evidence of NIP/TUCK MISCHIEF!

TOUGH-AS-NAILS TV jurist "Judge Judy" Sheindlin clearly has no objection to cosmetic fillers — she's been POISONED by Botox!

That's the bombshell ruling of a jury of world-renowned plastic surgeons empaneled by The National ENQUIRER to pass judgment on the 74-year-old gavel-pounder.

The experts agreed Judy "looks stunned all the time," but the shock has nothing to do with the lame-o excuses peddled by the plaintiffs on her show!

As these before-and-after photos obtained by The ENQUIRER reveal, Judy's surgically altered face is a frozen mask of shrink-wrapped flesh, leaving her incapable of showing emotion!

"Her skin looks immobile, frozen and lifeless!" declared Dr. Lyle Back, who has not treated Judge Judy, but evaluated the photos at The ENQUIRER's request.

"Even when her face is at rest, there is a tendency to look surprised. That shocked look doesn't go away."

Dr. Back recommended Judge Judy drop her gavel on additional cosmetic treatments.

"She needs to put the brakes on," he told The ENQUIRER.

"Once you get over 60 and 65, the Botox doesn't even work, because the skin has lost too much of its original makeup."

The tart-tongued star's lower face betrays clear evidence of a nip and tuck, added board-certified plastic surgeon Dr. Anthony Youn.

"She's had a face-lift, possibly combined with some fat injections into her face," Dr. Youn told The ENQUIRER.

"The lines on her lower face that extend from her chin to her ears when she smiles look a bit unnatural. They are consistent with the lift and pull of a face-lift.

"Her cheeks also may have been gently plumped up with some of her own fat!"

The doctors' expert analysis should be no surprise, especially since Judge Judy herself has confessed to going under the knife to turn back time.

"I've had a few new parts," the mother of five and grandmother of 12 once candidly admitted.

But the steely-eyed courtroom referee can certainly afford to splurge on such treatments, earning an astounding $47 MILLION a year for just 52 days of work!

Despite such a humongous haul, the native New Yorker is a dyed-in-the-wool penny-pincher!

"If I go to Saks or Bloomingdale's, I head right for the racks that say '33 percent off' without shame," Judy once dished. "I'd never buy full price."

Maybe being a cheapskate in the plastic surgeon's office explains her bizarro looks! NE

HEY CNN — THAT WAS NO ENQUIRER COVER!

MORE fake news!

On the day CNN sneered at The National ENQUIRER for its phantom role in the Mika Brzezinski-Donald Trump tweet controversy, the network ran this cover as an illustration of our work.

The segment aired June 29 on "The Lead with Jake Tapper."

Only one problem: The National ENQUIRER never published this cover. And while we don't know who created it, we're pretty sure how CNN got it.

A quick internet search revealed this fabricated image can be easily found on the website of a known leftist liar who smeared Sean Hannity.

Some CNN hack almost assuredly Googled "ENQUIRER cover," found this one and slapped it up on national TV without checking if it was actually an ENQUIRER cover. You know the saying: Those who live in glass houses shouldn't throw stones. How 'bout a slight tweak to that age-old bit of wisdom: Those who publish fake news shouldn't attack others! Clean up your house, CNN. We've got ours in order.

TRUMP'S SECRET PLAN TO DEFEAT NORTH KOREA'S DOOMSDAY MACHINE

Ingenious MILITARY AND DIPLOMATIC MOVES will stop tyrant Kim in his tracks

FACED with nuclear doomsday like no president since John F. Kennedy during the Cuban Missile Crisis, Donald Trump has taken bold and extraordinary steps to ensure America survives the siege and emerges with total victory!

Now, The National ENQUIRER can reveal the president's top-secret diplomatic and military approach to solving the North Korean Crisis — which recalls the "13 Days in October" of 1962 that saw Kennedy blockade Cuba and turn back Soviet missile systems aimed at the United States' heartland.

"Like a lot of history, the truth won't likely be known for years," said an intelligence source with knowledge of the president's efforts. "But this will eventually go down as Trump's finest hour. He's outfoxed our enemies in Russia and defanged the corrupt North Korean regime."

Until Trump's bold intervention, 2017 witnessed a chilling leap in North Korea's ability to threaten the world.

Since February alone, the police state fired 17 missiles in 11 tests — with each test, according to experts, representing the outlaw nation making ever greater strides to perfect a doomsday machine.

But the worst sign yet came on Independence Day, when North Korean madman Kim Jong-un ordered the country's first test of an intercontinental ballistic missile, or ICBM.

It was the 83rd missile test North Korea conducted since Kim assumed power in 2011 — and following the KN-14 missile's 580-mile flight, experts said the weapons system could have reached Alaska.

"North Korea doesn't know it — but we're already at war!" declared a Pentagon insider. "It's war like no one has ever known it — and it's being fought on many fronts."

On the diplomatic front, sources told The ENQUIRER Kremlin kingpin

FEELING THE PRESSURE

Trump has both China's Xi Jinping and Russia's Vladimir Putin in the palm of his hand

NO OTHER OPTION

Trump lays it on the line to Xi

Vladimir Putin has been quietly moving to assist North Korea — and Trump has been quietly making countermoves!

In May, a new ferry service began moving up to 200 passengers and 1,000 tons of cargo EVERY month between North Korea and the Russian port of Vladivostok.

At the same time, shipping experts have noted a steady movement of oil tanker traffic over those same sea lanes.

"A recent week saw no fewer than five North Korean oil tankers load up at Vladivostok," said a maritime expert. "We have no idea what was really on those ships. It could be oil — or something much more sinister."

As Trump prepared for his first showdown with Putin at the G20 summit in Hamburg, Germany, administration insiders told The ENQUIRER how America's negotiator-in-chief planned to handle the problem.

"We have deals in place with OPEC and the other major oil-producing states," said an insider. "We've extracted promises from them to keep pumping oil, regardless of how low the price falls, until Russia's economy is in total chaos."

"Most of Russia's cash comes from oil. The deal was secretly inked during Trump's visit to Saudi Arabia on May 20. Since then, you've seen the price of oil plummet to as low as $43 a barrel. Trump's deal is what's behind that move.

"Trump will make it clear to Putin that if he doesn't back his North Korea play, the oil keeps flowing until Russia collapses!"

What's more, the source told The ENQUIRER, Trump is even poised to "push hard" on an offer of NATO membership to Ukraine — a prospect that would drive Putin "bananas" and threaten his seizure of the nation's Crimea region, our source said.

Meanwhile, both before and after the July 4 test, the Trump administration started applying "significant pressure on China," another source close to the drama said.

On June 29, the Trump administration notified Congress it will sell $1.42 BILLION in arms to Taiwan — the contested island off China's coast which the Beijing regime claims as its own.

Said our intelligence source, "The sale of advanced missiles and torpedoes to Taiwan was a shot across China's bow."

Although the Trump administration has publicly said it still backs the so-called "One China" position — which calls for the eventual unification of Taiwan and the mainland — "all options are on the table if China doesn't assist with North Korea."

"It's classic Donald. He's turning Taiwan into a bargaining chip to make China dance on our string."

Following the Taiwan announcement, the U.S. Treasury Department announced sanctions

KNOW IT — BUT WE'RE ALREADY AT WAR!'

The Democrats are building a case to remove Donald Trump, seen with first lady Melania

DEMS CAN'T

UNFIT-FOR-OFFICE ploy would be steep uphill battle

THERE are two ways to remove a sitting president against his will: impeachment by Congress and the 25th Amendment. Adopted in 1967, the Amendment provides a way to oust a president if he is unable to "discharge the powers and duties of his office."

The provision has never been used, but two dozen House Democrats have indicated plans to begin procedures to use it to kick out President Donald Trump.

The amendment allows the vice president to take over if a majority of the Cabinet agrees the president is unfit. But it also lets Congress set up an alternate body to join the VP in making the decision — and freezes out the Cabinet.

Trump's Democrat enemies in the House, led by Congressman Jamie Raskin of Maryland, are backing a bill to set on a Chinese financial institution — the Bank of Dandong — suspected of providing North Korea economic support.

Finally, the State Department publicly warned it was very "concerned about any infringement on civil liberties" in Hong Kong, which was turned over to China by Great Britain 20 years ago.

"All of these acts are intended to create negotiating points with China," said our source. "You don't usually see American presidents rattle China's cage like this. There's a reason!"

But North Korea is facing direct consequences. While the nation was permitted to launch the July 4th missile, a Pentagon source told The ENQUIRER Trump has already ordered the Joint Chiefs of Staff to deploy a top-secret, plane-mounted laser to cruise off the Korean coast.

The laser is not only capable of blowing a ballistic missile out of the sky — but, according to our source, actually did so during two failed missile launches North Korea conducted in April!

"The laser is a direct offshoot of President Reagan's STAR WARS missile defense program," our insider said.

"We've been perfecting it since the U.S. Missile Defense Agency pulled off a successful test in February of 2010."

Simultaneously, The ENQUIRER can report a super-secret "off-the-books" team of CIA "cyber assassins" have penetrated North Korean networks — and are actively seeking a chance to assassinate Kim.

"We've been able to kill at least six members of his inner circle since February," the insider said.

"These men were killed in coordinated cyber attacks, although their deaths did not necessarily appear linked or intentional," said our source. "That's the beauty of it."

One North Korean military official was killed in an automobile "accident" and another during a routine dialysis treatment at a hospital. In a third case, American hackers were able to overload a piece of machinery that exploded, killing a third Kim associate.

"Everything is computer-controlled and networked, today," said our source. "Once we're inside, we can change what sort of medicine you receive, whether your car brakes work and so on.

"People are dropping like flies all around Kim — and he thinks it's all unconnected. He's in denial, but eventually we will catch up with him, too."

But even if Kim eludes America's cyber assassins, the Pentagon source said the fat-faced, cheese-gobbling tyrant will soon meet his doom from the flying death that hovers high in the sky above him.

As The ENQUIRER reported, Trump has authorized the use of America's first carrier-based drone, the MQ-25A — or "Stingray" — to launch from U.S. naval units steaming off the North Korean coast.

"This is extremely sensitive, but cyber warriors at the U.S. Cyber Command in Fort Meade have breached North Korea's air defense system. When Trump says 'go,' we can get a drone inside, assuming we know where Kim is, at a given moment.

"His days are numbered!"

GET TRUMP OUT SO FAST!

up an "Oversight Commission on Presidential Capacity" to consider invoking the 25th Amendment and removing the president. The commission would have 11 members, mostly physicians and psychiatrists.

If their bill passes, a majority of this commission, plus the VP, could remove Trump from office.

Already you hear the chorus building, claiming Trump is deranged. For example, "Morning Joe" Scarborough and Mika Brzezinski called him "mentally unbalanced," claiming he suffers from "mental illness."

"He keeps getting worse," Joe claimed. "This is a main decline." Mika said: "He has literally developed to the point where there is concern about his health. Or about his ability to take in information and use it correctly. It's like a child."

She added ominously: "This looks like the steps leading to a total meltdown. This is really bad. Just for the record, we're all really nervous."

Mika even said it might be time to use the 25th Amendment to oust Trump from office.

"There are people who need to really think about that. How long do they want this to last?" she asked.

Could it happen? Right now, no. Vice President Mike Pence would be sure to stop it, as would Republican majorities in both Houses. But if the GOP lost control of Congress in the 2018 election and the complaints about Trump's mental health mount in intensity, the pressure could really ratchet up.

Those wild media shots at Trump appear to be random name-calling — but they are not. They center on accusations of mental illness for a reason: The Democrats are looking to build a case for removal under the 25th Amendment.

If the VP and the Cabinet or the commission rule he needs to be removed, the 25th Amendment gives the president the right to appeal to Congress. The House and the Senate could then remove him from office by a two-thirds majority in each House. If Congress fails to act or disapproves the resolution, he stays in office. The process can be repeated over and over again.

So don't disregard the crazy Democratic charges that Trump is nuts. As Shakespeare said, "There is method to their madness." NE

JACKO KIDDIE NUDE STASH

FOUND!

DEPRAVED Michael Jackson ordered videos of naked children from a nudie magazine — and The National ENQUIRER has obtained evidence including photographs of the disgusting publication!

The magazine was removed from the late pop star's California ranch before it was raided by authorities, and was never entered as evidence in his child molestation trial in 2005, sources told The ENQUIRER.

The magazine, titled Naturally, advertised lurid videos of naked youths, nudist families and a nude adult man posing with two naked boys — and ALL of them were personally ordered by the King of Pop, according to a former member of his management team.

Vincent Amen, who worked for Michael in 2003 and even lived at the superstar's infamous Neverland Ranch, provided The ENQUIRER with the magazine and confirmed Michael ordered the nude tapes.

According to Vincent, he found the magazine while organizing the

REVOLTING COLLECTION was kept out of child-molest trial documents of Michael's management team after the group relocated to New York City in the early fall of 2003.

The magazine was in a bag given to him by a longtime friend of the "Thriller" singer, Vincent said.

"I took the bag home, looked inside and was shocked at what I found!" Vincent spilled to The ENQUIRER.

"There was a nude magazine called Naturally. I paged through it and was horrified!"

Two pages in the magazine advertised "fall 1999 video releases."

One eye-popping film, titled "Nudist Youth Weekend," described its contents as: "It's off to the mountains for this nudist youth group to enjoy a weekend of fresh air and fun."

Another video, titled "Fathers-Sons and Friends," was touted to explore "the love between dads and sons."

A third jaw-dropper, "Profile: Euro-Nudist Families #3," was advertised as featuring a visit to four nudist families and showed a disturbing image of an adult male and two young boys, all nude, with one boy sitting in the man's lap!

"It's not quite child porn — but it seems to come as close as possible without going over the line," said one source who viewed the material.

What's more, the source said the man-child tape was "quite representative" of other evidence Santa Barbara, Calif., police found during a raid in Neverland in November 2003.

According to Vincent, some of the video listings were circled with black marker. Back in 2003, he asked Michael's friend — who'd given him the bag with the magazine inside — about the videos.

The pal confirmed the magazine was Michael's and said the "Beat It" singer had used a marker to personally circle some of the videos he'd wanted to order, Vincent said.

"He told me that Michael used to watch the videos during a 'phase,'" Vincent revealed.

"He wasn't specific about when that phase actually occurred."

When contacted by The ENQUIRER,

Michael, who went on trial for child molestation but was acquitted in 2005, had high-profile friendships with kid actors like "Home Alone" star Macaulay Culkin, right, and Emmanuel Lewis, below right, of TV's "Webster" the pal denied Vincent's account. After discussing the videos with the man, a shaken Vincent hired an attorney, the late Jay Fahy. The two men contacted Santa Barbara District Attorney Tom Sneddon, who was prosecuting Michael on child molestation charges. Vincent had been named an unindicted co-conspirator in the case, and during a meeting with Tom, he said he disclosed "what I found in the bag and told him what he had told me." On Dec. 30, 2004, Vincent was given immunity in the case. Vincent's evidence echoes pornographic items found in the sickening trove of evidence removed from Neverland, sources said. In a report, police alleged Michael had used videos "for the purpose of grooming young boys" — in other words, to get them interested in sex and reduce their inhibitions. Vincent also provided The ENQUIRER with an invoice for seven "children's mannequins" — underage sex dolls. The invoice was made out to the source's first name — with no last name. During the raid on Neverland, police found the mannequins in Michael's home. The superstar went on trial in 2005 on four charges of molesting a minor, one charge of attempted child molestation, one conspiracy charge and eight possible counts of providing alcohol to minors. He was acquitted of all charges on June 13, 2005. Michael died of a drug overdose on June 25, 2009. He was 50 years old. NE

AUSSIE singer Olivia wears a mouth guard to protect her teeth from nighttime grinding, but the custom-made helper does nothing to improve the color of her not-so-pearly whites!

Still, she's not shy about showing them off and said, "The best face-lift is a smile!"

RICKY GERVAIS

QUIRKY comedian Ricky has some funny-looking fangs! The British star said he's often grilled in the U.S. by people who think he's wearing false teeth as part of his act — but sadly they're real.

THEY may have fame and fortune — but do any of these stars have a dentist? Their scary smiles show a side of these memorable celebrities that we'd rather forget!

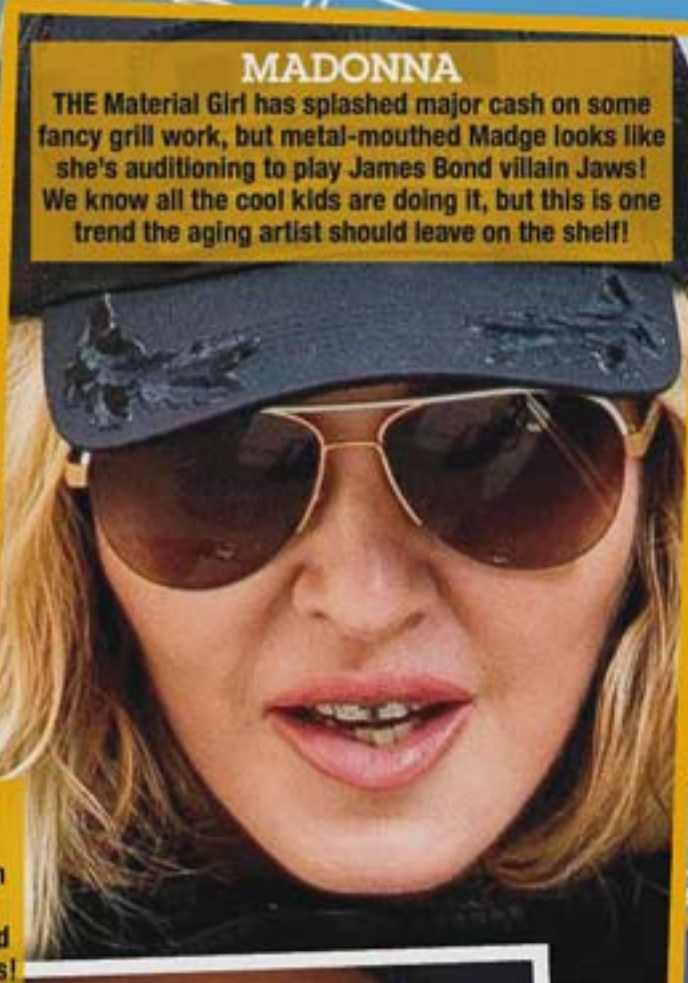

JEWEL

THE sweet singer said she loves her snaggletooth and has no plans to correct her twisted teeth. "I am proud of my flaws," added Jewel, who wore dentures to portray June Carter Cash.

STEVE BUSCEMI

DENTISTS have offered their aid, but the actor has turned them down flat, saying, "I won't work again if you fix my teeth." They're kooky and crooked, but he adores his chompers!

MADONNA

THE Material Girl has splashed major cash on some fancy grill work, but metal-mouthed Madge looks like she's auditioning to play James Bond villain Jaws! We know all the cool kids are doing it, but this is one trend the aging artist should leave on the shelf!

JOHNNY DEPP

JOHNNY is so committed to his "Pirates of the Caribbean" role as eccentric buccaneer Jack Sparrow he's kept the character's teeth! But between the tobacco stains and the mouth full of metal, we'd make him walk the plank!

EDDIE MURPHY

THERE are few cinematic smiles as recognizable as Eddie's charismatic grin, but the "Nutty Professor" star's teeth feature some laughably large spaces!

SUSAN SARANDON is robbing the cradle — again! Insiders revealed the 70-year-old is swooning over her 21-years younger co-star, Liev Schreiber!

Susan split from her 31-years younger business partner, Jonathan Bricklin, in 2015 and “is definitely in the market for a new man,” a friend dished.

The Oscar-winning actress has joined the cast of Liev’s hit Showtime series, “Ray Donovan,” and a source said she’s lasered in on the macho leading man.

“Susan says Liev is just her kind of guy — he’s big, rugged and handsome, but still incredibly thoughtful and enlightened,” the source snitched. “She has a big crush on him.”

Liev and “Twin Peaks” stunner Naomi Watts have two children together, but the pair split last fall after an 11-year romance.

The actor, 49, has since moved on from Naomi and is currently dating interior designer Morgan Brown, the ex-girlfriend of Scottish actor Gerard Butler, sources spilled.

“Liev knows Susan has a thing for him, and he plays along,” the source said.

“It just makes things a little livelier on the set!”

CRAZED ROB K. FACES REVENGE PORN

ROB KARDASHIAN could be JAILED for “revenge porn” after he posted explicit photos of his baby mama Blac Chyna to social media in a sick effort to shame her for allegedly cheating!

The reality star, 30, shared an intimate video on Instagram on July 5 of his ex-fiancee — with whom he shares eight-month-old daughter Dream — kissing another man.

“Hahahaha Chyna just sent me this video saying happy 4th of July what a crazy person,” he captioned it. “Come spend time with your daughter instead of f---ing me and then this dude right after.”

Rob continued his tirade, alleging Chyna is a drug and alcohol addict, that she dumped him after he paid $100,000 for post-baby plastic surgery — as well as posting private nude photos and sordid details of their sex life.

“I never been so disrespected in my life,” he wrote on one naked photo. “I just bought her 250K of jewelry yesterday. This woman is so disrespectful and I don’t care.”

A year after their divorce, songbird Mariah Carey and comedian Nick Cannon are giving their rocky relationship another go!

KATY & PATTINSON SNAP TWIGS' HEART!

ROBERT PATTINSON is flirting up a storm with old gal pal Katy Perry — behind the back of girlfriend FKA Twigs!

Sources told The National ENQUIRER even though Katy, 32, recently left the "Twilight" hunk, 31, off her list of top three lovers, he's definitely caught her interest once again!

"Rob and Katy have been texting and talking nonstop since she and Orlando [Bloom] split," a snitch spilled.

"It's all done below the radar because Twigs would flip a rod if she found out.

"They always call each other 'babe' and 'honey' and sign off with kissing emojis and xoxo's — I mean, what type of platonic friend does that?!"

"Rob's ALWAYS had the hots for Katy and would jump at the chance to date her again — and everyone knows it!"

The source added: "Katy is Rob's dream woman. His friends have been saying for years they're destined to wind up together.

"Now Katy's single and is hopefully done finding bad guys attractive.

"It's the ideal opportunity for her and Rob to take things to the next level."

NIGHTMARE!

"U had me take u to get surgery on your entire body for 100K ... and they made your nipples like this and I still loved all u."

In 2013, California added "revenge porn" — the nonconsensual distribution of sexual images, frequently of former partners — to the Penal Code.

Attorney Lisa Bloom — who recently won a revenge porn case involving actress Mischa Barton — believes Rob violated the law.

"The criminal penalty is up to six months in jail," she said. "If she sued him for money damages, the amount she received would depend on the emotional distress she suffered.

"Given that he has a large social media following, if the jury was sympathetic to her, she could recover millions." NE

BARRY MANLOW CANCER CRISIS

Decades of smoking TAKE FINAL TOLL on raspy singer!

CAMPY crooner Barry Manilow made it through the rain, but he might not make it through a sudden devastating downturn in his health!

Decades of sucking down cigarettes and reefer have caught up to the "Mandy" man, and The National ENQUIRER has exclusively learned that he's now facing a cancer crisis.

"Barry's health has been severely compromised," a source close to the tunesmith told The ENQUIRER. "He's battling multiple major issues that could drastically shorten his life — even end it — and it's all tied to his ongoing, incessant smoking."

The sad news comes after Barry, 74, was forced to cancel a number of shows in May. As an explanation to disappointed fans, he chalked up his vanishing act to "sprained" vocal cords.

While he managed to drag himself out of his sickbed to perform at Nassau Coliseum on Long Island, N.Y., he appeared worryingly thin and frail, his voice at times nothing more than a raspy croak.

The source that snitched on Barry's dire condition is backed up by medical experts, who agree that the concert cancellations raise troubling red flags.

"Cigarette smoke is carcinogenic — this has been known for 50 years," warned Dr. Stuart Fischer, The ENQUIRER's chief medical correspondent, who has not treated Barry. "Barry is playing with fire."

Dr. Gabe Mirkin, who has not seen Barry as a patient, echoed this opinion, telling The ENQUIRER: "Cigarette smoking damages every organ in the body and kills more than half a million Americans each year."

Dr. Mirkin, author of "The Healthy Heart Miracle," also noted, "Smoking has already destroyed many of Barry's cilia, so his bronchial tubes are no doubt now full of mucous blocking the flow of air in and out of his lungs. With continued smoking, he will have so much mucus blocking his bronchial tubes that he will be at increased risk for smothering to death."

The insidious strength of Barry's addiction became abundantly clear after his heart attack scare in October, 2015. The singer suffered from such extreme palpitations at his Palm Springs, Calif., home, he reportedly had to be airlifted to a Los Angeles medical center! Yet while he survived, he was unable to quit smoking.

And it's not just tobacco that has a hold on the openly gay entertainer.

"Barry not only smokes regular cigarettes, but also e-cigarettes and marijuana," the insider revealed. "All his friends have urged him to stop many times and he always says he will, but then he'll sneak smokes when no one is looking."

Summed up the source: "Barry's been hooked for so long, it's only a matter of time until it catches up to him!"

TIGER WOODS is close to relapsing after a rushed stint in rehab, friends fear.

The shamed golfer confirmed The National ENQUIRER's report he'd secretly arranged a 28-day rehab stint after his DUI bust, when cops found him asleep at the wheel after downing a cocktail of prescription meds.

But an insider told The National ENQUIRER: "Tiger's a ticking time bomb in every aspect of his life, and that includes his sobriety!"

"It's great that he's seeking treatment. But we've seen this happen before — he makes that initial effort, then slips back into the same bad habits.

"Everyone's praying Tiger will stick to a sober regimen this time." NE

NATALIE WAS RAPED BEFORE HER DEATH!

SHOCKING NEW CLAIM
exposes autopsy cover-up!

IN A stunning new twist to the Natalie Wood mystery, The National ENQUIRER has learned the brunette beauty may have been raped before her watery death 35 years ago!

The late actress' grieving sister, Lana Wood, dropped the bombshell claim while pressuring authorities to handcuff the "person of interest" in the case — Natalie's hot-tempered husband, Robert Wagner!

With the claim the beloved "West Side Story" star was sexually assaulted before her death at age 43 on Nov. 29, 1981, questions are now being raised of a possible autopsy COVER-UP!

To bolster that theory, Lana said she has recently learned from a lawyer closely connected to the case that a rape kit — the gathering and preserving of physical evidence in sexual assault cases — was conducted during Natalie's autopsy!

But investigators first claimed no rape kit was taken — and neither were fingernail clippings with potentially vital DNA evidence linked to Natalie's attacker, according to former "James Bond" girl Lana.

"I was then told later that there WAS a rape kit, and there were fingernail clippings and somehow they are not accessible and nobody knows anything about it," Lana, 71, said on "Crime Stories with Nancy Grace."

According to a top legal expert, investigators must have seen telltale evidence that prompted them to think a rape kit was necessary.

"If there is a reason for the medical examiner's office to believe the person may have been a victim of sexual assault, they do the rape analysis — and they will probably take a real in-depth look because the victim is no longer alive," former homicide bureau assistant district attorney Javier Solano told The ENQUIRER. As The ENQUIRER reported in a previous blockbuster, a crucial top-secret report containing sensational details about Natalie's death off California's Catalina Island has been kept from public view by medical examiners and investigators.

Natalie, who would have turned 79 on July 20, was found floating off Catalina Island in a red down parka, a nightgown, and wool socks — but NO panties, said Sheryl McCollum, of the Atlanta-based Cold Case Investigative Research Institute, which is conducting its own probe into her death.

The star was spending Thanksgiving weekend sailing on board her yacht Splendour with Wagner and "Brainstorm" co-star Christopher Walken.

A boozed-up Wagner, now 87, flew into a jealous rage and tangled with Natalie, according to yacht skipper Dennis Davern, who charged the "Hart to Hart" star delayed searching for his wife after she went missing.

Natalie's body was examined, but the rape kit evidence vanished!

Though Natalie's death was ruled an accident at first, the Sheriff's Homicide Bureau reopened the probe in 2011, and the medical examiner changed the cause of death to "drowning and other undetermined factors."

Wagner's lawyer Blair Berk has claimed the former hunk has "fully cooperated" with police, and vehemently denied any wrongdoing.

But both Lana and Marti Rulli, who co-authored "Goodbye Natalie, Goodbye Splendour" with eyewitness Davern, claimed authorities have enough evidence to arrest Wagner, but for unknown reasons, the L.A. County District Attorney's Office is reluctant to present the case to a grand jury. NE

Cops uncover GOLF CART CHOP SHOP at retirement village

STOUPED-up golf carts are hot stuff in the Florida retirement haven The Villages — and now cops suspect one resident was running a golf cart chop shop! Amazingly, the scam was discovered in the middle of a drug bust! After a confidential informant had made three drug buys in a home there, a SWAT team raided the place around 6 a.m. on June 21. Drugs, including marijuana, heroin and methamphetamine, and drug paraphernalia were in plain sight at the home, police said. But Sumter County deputies also found windshields, seat cushions, wheels and tires, along with other golf cart parts, in the home's garage and attic. Chief Deputy Gary Brannen, who

QUICK, call Foghorn Leghorn! Florida animal lover Bobbie Trevarthen was heartbroken when she woke up to find her henhouse raided — and dozens of her feathered friends missing. "It's devastating," said Bobbie, 68, who's been breeding birds for fun since 1965. "They're my babies!" she moaned over the 35 chickens, nine ducks and a turkey. "I come out and they're all gone!" The henhouse fence was open and the pens inside wiped clean

Bobbie insisted it's not the monetary loss that has her in despair. "If you had a 12-year-old [child] all of a sudden disappear, how would you feel?" she said, pointing out that one of the missing ducks had been her companion for more than a decade. One of the golf cart parts found had been reported stolen in Georgia.

Sumter County Sheriff's Lt. Robert Siemer said deputies were trying to tie other parts to "some golf carts stolen in the neighborhood here in The Villages" as well.

Five people were arrested during the raid, including Kathleen Unrath, authorities said.

Unrath, 43, has a long arrest record, and is the niece of the ailing homeowner. Cops don't believe the homeowner is involved in any illegal activity.

She lived in the house, and said she was going to take care of her uncle. Instead, she was allegedly running the illegal drug and chop shop businesses behind his back, according to deputies.

The five people arrested face a variety of charges, including possession of methamphetamine with intent to sell, keeping or maintaining a drug shop, possession of heroin and possession of paraphernalia, officials revealed.

HEY, GUYS! Strengthen your heart — with more sex! In fact, new research indicates getting busy several times a week strengthens the entire cardiovascular system, but only if you're a guy. Having sex several times a week can promote better circulation and healthier blood vessels in men, which researchers say is crucial for preventing a build-up of the chemical homocysteine, according to researchers in a report in The Journal of Sexual Medicine. Women benefit much less because sexual arousal is less dependent on having a healthy blood flow. But there ARE other benefits ... we're told.

SPOT CANCER SIGNS EARLY!

EARLY intervention can be a life-saver when fighting cancer — so know the warning signs! Nagging coughing or a constant sore throat may mean lung, laryngeal or thyroid cancer or lymphoma. Unexplained weight loss is a common sign of pancreatic, lung, esophageal or stomach cancer. Even changes or pain in freckles, warts or moles may indicate skin cancer. If you have any of the following persistent symptoms see a physician immediately!

OLIVE OIL WEAPON AGAINST ALZHEIMER'S!

OLIVE oil is not only great for cooking, it can help prevent Alzheimer's disease! The vital ingredient in the Mediterranean diet also guards memory and learning ability, according to researchers at Temple University. Tests showed the common salad dressing helps break down and clear away debris and toxins, including the culprits behind Alzheimer's. Further tests showed mice fed extra-virgin olive oil outperformed other mice in tests of working memory, spatial memory and learning ability.

POT-FILLED PAINKILLERS ON THE WAY!

DRUG companies are lighting a fire under plans to develop marijuana-based painkillers as an alternative to addictive opioids. Opioid overdoses claimed more than 33,000 lives in 2015, according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. The cannabis plant has been used for decades to manage pain and there are increasingly sophisticated marijuana products available across 29 U.S. states, as well as in the District of Columbia, where medical marijuana is legal. A marijuana-based drug approved by the FDA would be a huge benefit, according to experts, because it would provide consistent potency and availability.

'HAWAII FIVE-O' STARS EXIT OVER PAY!

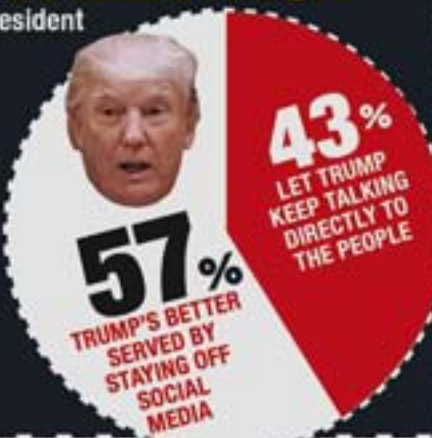

TWO "Hawaii Five-O" stars are leaving the hit drama series because they felt CBS was stiffing them. Daniel Dae Kim, who played Chin Ho Kelly, and Grace Park, who portrayed Kono Kalakaua, wanted equal pay to leads Alex O'Loughlin and Scott Caan.

READERS WANT PREZ TO STOP TWEETING!

THE press loves to hate when President Donald Trump starts posting on Twitter — but his controversial statements on the social media site have even divided some supporters over his blunt talk and late-night postings. We asked readers at nationalenquirer.com: Should the president keep tweeting? The results are fairly split, but most thought he should break the internet habit! NE

Letter OF THE week

Save the show

Get rid of Tyra Banks. It's time for "America's Got Talent" to let her go ("Tyra the TYRA-NT!" June 26). Please bring back Nick Cannon. Nick was such a huge part of the unbeatable team with Simon Cowell, Heidi Klum, Mel B and Howie Mandel. Together, they were very entertaining. This show is just not the same without Nick.

Great news that Johnny Depp is giving up the opposite sex and the dating scene for a while ("Depp Going a Year Without Sex!" June 26). This is especially good after that train wreck Amber Heard. Now he can focus on his career. We missed him!

Just say no

This world would be a better and safer one if drugs and alcohol were nonexistent. Tiger Woods is a recent example of a medical drug crisis ("DUI Tiger Doping Shocker!" June 19). Count your blessings, Tiger! This could have been a serious tragedy.

National Collector's Mint announces a special release of the...

2017 Hillary Clinton Dollar

“What might have been!”

Friday, 9:30 AM, New York – It didn't take long. After experiencing our 45th President, many Americans are wondering, “What might have been?!”

Look closely at history in the making. Announcing a new offering saluting who could have been our 45th President. It's the 2017 Hillary Rodham Clinton Dollar, a U.S. legal tender Presidential Dollar enhanced by National Collector's Mint with a full-color image of Hillary Rodham Clinton surrounded by the words: “45th President of the United States, What might have been!”

Many people never thought they'd miss her but now they've joined those who made Hillary Clinton the winner of the popular vote by 2.8 million votes in the 2016 election.

Today, we all yearn for stability. Our 45th President promised security... but do you feel secure? Each day begs the question, “what did he do now!?” What allies did he insult? Who did he demean? Even if you didn't agree with Hillary, you wouldn't be asking those questions if she was in the Oval Office.

Limited Offer

Now, National Collector's Mint announces the special issue of the 2017 Hillary Clinton Dollar. It's a genuine legal tender dollar. Very appropriately, it's an official U.S. Presidential Dollar to which we have added a full-color image of Hillary Rodham Clinton on the obverse with the phrase, “45th President of the United States, What might have been!”

The final issue price was to be set at $29.95. However, during this special release, this important “What might have been!” commemorative can be yours for just $9.95. There is a strict limit of 5 2017 Hillary Clinton “What might have been!”

Reserve yours today!

$9.95
plus S&H

Presidential Dollars per order. Each comes with a Certificate of Authenticity. Reservations will be filled on a first-come, first-served basis. So, the earliest orders receive the lowest numbers.

Even if you voted for President Donald J. Trump, you may be yearning for a kinder, gentler time; a time when the rest of the world respected the United States of America, a time when Stephen Colbert was not number 1 in late night because of his bashing of President Trump, a time that was filled with less hatred and promoted respect for differing points of view. These feelings are expressed by the 2017 Hillary Clinton “What might have been!” Presidential Dollar.

How To Order

To assure your reservation, we ask you to call us immediately Toll-Free 1-800-799-MINT, Extension 4524 (1-800-799-6468).

You may reserve one 2017 Hillary Clinton “What might have been!” Presidential Dollar for $9.95 plus $4.95 shipping, handling and insurance, 3 for only $39 ppd., 5 for just $62 ppd. Deluxe presentation cases are only $6.00 each ppd. So avoid disappointment and future regret. Reserve yours today! CALL NOW!

Psychic Tori can't make debt disappear!

TORI SPELLING is so desperate for income she resorted to becoming the face of Psychic Source — and now an insider believes she's been taking her role as spokesperson a little too seriously!

The tipster informed All the Buzz the former "Beverly Hills, 90210" star has become obsessed with spiritual readings and refuses to make any major decisions without consulting her preferred guides — who offer readings over the phone or through online chat for $1 a minute — beforehand.

"Tori is totally hooked," said the squealer. "She talks to the psychics up to 10 times a day, asking questions and getting information about her children, her husband, her mom, career choices and explanations of the messages she feels are from her late father."

According to the source, Tori even thinks she has special powers herself! The mother of five sometimes smells unfamiliar scents in the house and sees lights flicker during the early morning hours — and believes spirits are sending signals!

"If Tori thinks she has psychic abilities, you would have thought she could have seen her money problems coming!" snickered the blabbermouth.

EMMA TO QUIT LA LA LAND FOR SINGING CAREER!

VIEWERS were impressed after watching Emma Stone sing her heart out in "La La Land" — and if she gets her way, there will be more where that came from: her own album!

"It's been a dream of hers for years. She wants the album to be something classic," a music industry insider disclosed.

After being shocked by the positive reaction to her singing,

Emma wants to take a break from acting to dominate the music world — but has a huge hurdle: her fear of singing live!

"She's psyched, even though stage fright is a bit of a worry. That's the main reason she turned down performing 'La La Land' songs this past awards season. It's a real struggle, but it's getting better."

Our source confided the actress is exploring her options before committing to a musical style — but insists she can sing both jazz and rhythm and blues.

"She says she needs really great material to shine and has never sung one of her own compositions in front of everybody," leaked the mole. "She keeps it private and discreet — which is what's so appealing to producers."

CAITLYN JENNER'S RICH BITCH!

CAITLYN JENNER is spoiling her brand-new puppy rotten — and we're not talking about extra treats and rawhide bones!

A pal in Caitlyn's inner circle spilled the 67-year-old has been giving her new Labrador, Bertha, "the best of everything" — from daily home-visit dog groomers to puppy therapists.

"Caitlyn is spending more on the dog than herself right now," the confidant squealed. "She's bought an array of little vests and doggy clothes — as well as a diamond-studded collar and a $2,000 Gucci travel bag!"

There's more to come: The snitch revealed the former Olympian is making plans to have La Petite Maison build Bertha an extravagant doghouse valued at $25,000 — that will have a custom-designed bathtub!

But while the pooch is providing some much-needed canine cuddles, the source worried whether Caitlyn's dependence on her new furry friend is healthy.

"There's no doubt she's filling the void left by her family," the buddy disclosed. "But this dog is going to leave her broke if she keeps it up."

"Cait's local Pets-R-Us must have had a spike in profits since Bertha came home!"

ASK THE VET WITH DR. JEFF LACROIX

OWNING a pet can often be a puzzling experience. ENQUIRER columnist Dr. Jeff LaCroix — a top veterinarian — answers all our readers' questions about their four-legged friends.

HEATSTROKE IN DOGS

Last summer one of our neighbors' dogs died of heatstroke. Now that it's getting hotter and hotter, what should dog owners know about this problem?

While humans lose body heat mainly through sweating, dogs perspire only between their footpads and from the tip of their nose. They primarily dissipate heat through their lungs by panting — not a very efficient method. Signs of heatstroke include panting, weakness, a deep red gum color and/or reddened eyes.

Take the dog's rectal temperature (any thermometer will do). If it is above 104 degrees F, do anything to cool him down — garden hose, cold bath, topical alcohol. If the temp is over 106 degrees F, do any of the above and quickly transport him to your vet or nearest emergency clinic. By the way, a dog's normal temp is 100 to 102.5 degrees F.

New Pill Delivers Stunning Relief from Neuropathy and 30 Other Leg Issues

Demand for all natural nerve pain pill soars after initial users report spectacular results

BOSTON — Rick Healy, a retired engineer from Massachusetts, was forced into a wheelchair because of his diabetes and nerve pain that went with it. But if you met Rick today, you'd see he's out of his chair and feeling great! No burning. No numbness. Nothing. His doctor swears it's a miracle. But Rick knows the real secret.

"FORCED INTO A WHEELCHAIR"

When asked about life before his amazing recovery from neuropathy, Mr. Healy described his days as "unbearable" and "depressing". "On my best day I still needed a cane. And on my worst days I couldn't get out of bed! I was a prisoner to the pain in my legs and feet. It was terrible. I couldn't travel. I couldn't play golf. I couldn't do much of anything. Going up and down stairs or getting into my car was a nightmare. That's when the doctors recommended a wheelchair".

RESTLESS NIGHTS

The neuropathy had caused other issues, too. Rick revealed that his discomfort became so bad that he couldn't get more than 3-4 hours of sleep a night.

"The nights were hard. I was exhausted but my legs were restless. I couldn't get comfortable. And so most nights I'd just lie there thinking of what was going to happen to me...absolutely terrified that I'd be living like this for the rest of my life".

STUNNING RELIEF ARRIVES

Unlike the millions who suffer alone, Rick was lucky enough to have the support of his wife, Marie. A retired market researcher for the supplement industry, she couldn't bear to see Rick hurt any longer and started searching the web for an answer.

She started by scouring scientific sites she used to read years ago and eventually landed on an interesting new article. A small group of chemists, researchers, and doctors excited about a new pill that's helped even the most serious cases of neuropathy and nerve damage.

BURNING, TINGLING, AND NUMBNESS... GONE

After reading all about the amazing success people were having with NeuroQuell, the natural nerve relief pill made specifically for people with neuropathy (especially from diabetes), she decided to get it for Rick to try. And the results were striking.

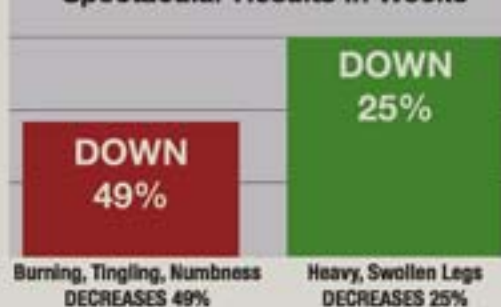

In just a few short weeks, the excruciating leg and foot pain that had plagued him for years disappeared and didn't come back.

"I knew it was working when I woke up one morning without numbness or burning in my legs...I haven't experienced that in years! It was unlike anything I've tried before. And today my nerve problems are gone. I can't thank my wife enough. NeuroQuell has given me my life back."

EXTRAORDINARY RESULTS

Today tens of thousands of people use NeuroQuell and regularly report sensational results. Experts are scratching their heads in disbelief. "We are absolutely stunned by the results. People who've used canes and walkers for years no longer need them. People who were in terrible discomfort now feel relief," said one industry expert.

Spectacular Results In Weeks

"But in the end, it all comes down to research and NeuroQuell has that. Numerous studies on its proprietary formula prove its remarkable ability to relieve neuropathy and over 30 other leg issues, too. And that number is growing fast".

REPAIRS AND RENEWS DAMAGED NERVES

What makes NeuroQuell so effective? Experts believe it has to do with its amazing ability to repair and renew damaged nerves.

Stunning new research from leading medical schools reveals that the origin of all nerve pain is caused by damaged nerves in your legs and feet that stream constant pain signals to your brain. And because these particular cells are incapable of regenerating on their own, you never get relief.

"What most people don't know is that virtually all lower leg problems, including (diabetic) neuropathy, is brought on by damaged nerves that can't fix themselves. It's that simple," explains NeuroQuell's CEO.

SPECIALIZED INGREDIENTS

NeuroQuell works by supplying your body with twelve key nutrients that are vital to nerve repair. Damaged nerves in your legs and feet send ongoing pain signals to your brain, bringing on feelings of burning, tingling, and numbness that can last around-the-clock.

The nutrients in NeuroQuell, including special B vitamins and Alpha Lipoic Acid, have the amazing ability to repair and regenerate damaged nerves, shutting off your pain at the source and making sure it never comes back. With new, healthier, and stronger nerves, your legs and feet will feel 10-20 years younger!

SOLVES OVER 30 OTHER LEG AND FOOT ISSUES

One thing the makers of NeuroQuell want you to know is that you don't have to have neuropathy to get its benefits.

"Our research confirms that nerve damage is the underlying cause of nearly every lower leg issues. And that's why we're never surprised when people call in excited to tell us that their varicose veins, spider veins, restless legs, and several other leg issues are also gone".

Quick Relief From:

- Burning, tingling, and numbness
- Shooting, stabbing pains
- Itching and scratching
- Cramping and twitching
- Swollen, heavy, and restless legs
- Muscle aches and weakness

GUARANTEED TO WORK

By combining twelve incredibly powerful nutrients proven to repair your nerves, NeuroQuell is guaranteed to reduce numbness and tingling in your legs and feet. Lessen painful burning sensations, support and strengthened nerves, arteries, and veins, relax restless legs, lighten heavy legs, and also improve your balance and coordination.

HOW TO PLAY

You must fill in every empty square in the Sudoku grid. There's no right way of going about this, but there is only ever one solution. The big grid is split into nine mini-grids. There are nine rows running left to right and nine columns running down. In every row, you must have each of the numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9. These can be in any order. The same applies to columns and mini-grids: place every number 1 through 9 in each column and in each mini-grid.

HOW TO TALK ABOUT
MENTAL HEALTH
WITH ANYONE

It's totally possible. You just need to help them relate. Use metaphors. Throw in a joke. With the right words, you can discuss anxiety with a coworker. You can talk about bipolar disorder with a boss. You can open up about PTSD with a parent. Not every conversation will be perfect, but each one chips away at the stigma surrounding mental illness. And that's a conversation worth having.

TINY DICTATORSHIP THRIVES WITHIN U.S.!

Welcome to the REPUBLIC OF MOLOSSIA

A MICRONATION deep in the American desert is boldly charting its own course in the world. It's the Republic of Molossia, which bills itself as a dictatorship under the benevolent rule of president Kevin Baugh. He commands a land with its own flag, currency, border control and laws. Although Molossia is not recognized as a sovereign country by any other nation, Kevin and his people claim control over a five-acre site that borders California and Nevada. "I love being a dictator; it is fantastic," said Kevin, who created the land in 1977 with a friend who has since moved on. The tiny nation is sustained by tours of visitors from other lands; more than 100 have dropped by this year already! They buy stamps, T-shirts and other trinkets that support the Molossian economy. The nation was originally named Vuldstein, but Kevin changed it to make it less Germanic. He now regrets the change after learning there actually was a Molossia in ancient Greece. But since he's the dictator, he can call his country whatever he likes. The population currently includes Kevin's wife, first lady Adrienne, and two of his youngest children, along with a slew of animals. Other relatives — expatriates — live nearby in Nevada's Dayton County. One individual not granted citizenship, however, is the family cat. "The cat is not a citizen of the country because you can't trust cats," noted Kevin. NE
